BOMBAY MARKETS.

COTTON.

(From our Correspondent.

Bombay, Aug. 24.

The Marwari Bazar opened this morning for Broach M. G. Oomra September at Rs. 350 and advanced till Rs. 361 which was the rate at noon. The prices remained steady till 4 p.m. when the Bazar finally closed at Rs. 364. At Oomra the market opened at Rs. 364 and closed at Rs. 361.

New Oomra Fine M. G. for December-January 1922 delivery opened at Rs. 330 and after touching Rs. 327 advanced till Rs. 334.

New F. G. Broach April-May 1922 opened at Rs. 365 and after touching Rs. 359 advanced till Rs. 361.

Our market for ready cotton continues to remain quiet for ordinary cotton. But speculators are buying only nice fine Oomra lots at higher rates. Japan and millwalas are quiet at present. About 3000 bales only are reported to have been sold yesterday.

Nigapa Appana.
vs.
The King-Emperor.

(Before the Chief Justice Sir Norman Macleod and Sir Lallubhai Shah.

This was an appeal against the decision of Mr. E. H. Waterfield, Sessions Judge of Dharwar. The Sessions Judge found the accused guilty of murdering his aunt Sakrewa and sentenced him to death under section 302 of the Indian Penal Code.

The facts are briefly these:—

The accused and his brother Mallappa lived at Batanal and owned property which included the field in which this murder took place. Some years ago they separated, and the field fell to Mallappa's share. He died about eight years ago and a posthumous son was born to him, but died six months later. His widow Yellawa lived with her brother-in-law, the accused, who managed the whole property, but he married a wife who quarrelled with her, and she left his house. She asked him to give her her husband's share of the property, but he refused. Afterwards she adopted her brother Basapa, and further attempts were made to obtain possession of the field, but without success. On Sunday the 20th March the accused and his tenants went to the field to cut Jowari ears. Yellava went there, followed by Basappa and she obstructed the work. Thereupon the accused struck his aunt Sakrawa, who was one of the labourers three blows with a sickle. She died almost immediately. The accused then went to attack Basappa with his sickle, but the latter struck him with a stick and disarmed him. The accused then went to the Jowari stack where he cut himself with the sickle on the left arm and both legs, after which he returned to Basappa and stained his clothes with blood. The accused then informed the Police that Basappa had committed the murder. As Basappa's clothes were found to be bloodstained, he was arrested. After due inquiries by the police it was found out that the accused was the real murderer and not Basappa. The result was that Basappa was released and the accused was arrested.

The accused stated that Basappa attacked him with a sickle and when his aunt interceded, some blows fell on her which caused her death.

The Sessions Judge refused to believe the defence and observed. "It does not seem probable that the deceased, an old woman of 60, would have interfered in such a way and it is impossible to believe that if she was struck by accident she could have received three such severe injuries while those received by the accused were very trifling. He has brutally murdered an old woman who had given him no provocation whatsoever, and he has charged an innocent man with committing the offence."

Their Lordships after hearing arguments observed that the evidence in the case was not sufficient to pass the highest penalty prescribed by law. Their Lordships therefore reduced the sentence of death passed on the accused to that of transportation for life.

TRIAL OF DACOITS.

APPROVER CONTINUES EVIDENCE.

The trial of one Haji Sherhamomed, a Mahomedian, and 30 other Mahomedans who were charged with committing dacoities in Baroda, Nandod, Surat, Ahmedabad, Kaira, Panch Mahals and Bombay, was again resumed yesterday morning at the Esplanade Police Court, before a Special Magistrate, Mr. H. P. H. Dastoor. These dacoits belong to a gang of persons associated for the purpose of habitually committing dacoities.

Accused Nos. 2, 3, 5, 8, 9 and 17 were charged with committing a dacoity and murder at Key Road, Mazagon, on December 18, 1920, and accused Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 23 with committing a dacoity and murder at Khara Matunga on the 6th March.

Mr. S. G. Velinkar, Bar.-at-Law, with Dr. Daroowalla, appeared for the Crown, while Mr. R. S. Pundit, Bar.-at-Law, defended accused Nos. 4, 22, 23, 24, 26 and 27 and Mr. P. L. Thakar, Advocate, with Mr. Kantilal Thakore, pleader, defended Karsondas, a Banta dacoit.

Ismail, the 1st Approver, continuing his evidence, said three days after the Aritha dacoity, one Din Mohomed and Mohomed Karim came to Ballasinore. They all consulted together, and Din Mohomed told them that he knew a house at Sarpur Pardi where a large sum of money could be found. They went there and after having made a loot returned from there. Eight of them then came down to Baroda. They took their meals in Baroda and slept in a jungle the whole night. They remained in Baroda for three or four days. Thereafter Din Mohomed was laid up with fever. After some days seven of them again started for a dacoity. They were armed with a gun, "dharias" and sticks. They again, met at the appointed place, Sarpur Pardi and attacked the Patildar's house and made a loot of Rs. 25,000 in cash, and gold and silver ornaments. Ornaments were removed from the person of two women in the house. They (eight of them) then proceeded to a distance of four or five miles and divided the looted property among themselves. Each one of them received Rs. 2,000 in cash, and the ornaments were kept with Haji and Rasool for contingencies and general legal expenses. Afterwards Abdulla, Gullam Rasul, Haji and himself took train at the Sachin station to go to Baroda. Ornaments were then sold away by Goolam Rasul and Abdulla.

The witness came to know Karsondas after the big Sarpur Pardi affair. After that dacoity he went to live in the house of Hoorabai, the approver. He was taken there by one Bare Mia, the step-son of Hoorabai. Karsondas was dealing in cloth there and he one day went to make purchases there. Cloth of the value of Rs. 300 was purchased from him. After twenty or twenty-five days he was arrested in Hoorabai's house and taken to the Pelice Chowky. The Baroda Police released him on bail and then the British police arrested him. He was subsequently sent to Baroda Jail for two months and was afterwards acquitted. Prior to that, on the day of his release, Baremia had come to jail to receive him. Three or four days after, he saw Karsondas in the Bazaar. Before he was arrested he had opened a shop of "pan-bidi." He had also purchased two horses. After his release Baremia gave a big feast to his fellowmates in Hoorabai's house.

There were four leaders of his gang, viz., Haji, Abdulla, Goolam Rasul and himself, and there were sixty or seventy persons were under him. This gang came into existence four years ago. Formerly there were three leaders under whom there were ten persons. This gang was first formed at Asoj prior to the Sabeila dacoity. The Sabeila dacoity was committed on May 16, 1918. This gang was formed with a view to committing dacoities from time to time. Goolam Rasool became a leader of the Raneda dacoity. When the leaders took part in the dacoities they received Rs. 100 to Rs. 400 according to the extent of loot more than others. After putting aside a certain amount for leaders also the leaders had to provide for the expenses of legal proceedings in courts (if any) and also to provide for illness of any members in the whole gang whether they took part in dacoities or not. At the date of his arrest in Bombay there were in all four leaders and 60 to 70 men. Some were at Baroda, Ballasinore, Karachi, Kaira and in other Talukas in Gujerat and in Bombay.

Later on, about seven of them committed a dacoity at Mandvi in a house. One Nathia Bhill knocked at the door of the Bania and stated that some one was dead in a village and they wanted a piece of cloth. As soon as they opened the door, they attacked him and took from him the key of the safe. They opened the safe and made a loot of many silver and gold ornaments and about Rs. 75 to Rs. 100. Ornaments were of the value of Rs. 8,000 to Rs. 9,000. There were also five Borahs with the witness at that time.

A Bangalore message of August 23rd says:—The engine, two covered goods waggons, and two bogie passenger coaches of 21 up mixed mail capsized at mile 68/14 between Nandi and Avathihalli on the narrow gauge. There was no injury to passengers post and parcels will be transhipped on 23rd August, 1921. (A. P.).

DO YOU FEAR CHILLS?

DEADLY THROAT AND LUNG DANGER WARDED OFF BY PEPS.

Catching a chill—it's easy but dangerous. Once inflammation starts in your throat or lungs, there's no limiting the deadly perils that menace you.

Take PEPS in time. Exterminate these virulent disease-germs before they have chance to spread. Bathe the sore inflamed breathing passages with the soothing, germicidal air-like medicine given off by PEPS tablets as they dissolve in the mouth.

PEPS are speedily effective. They not only provide a powerful direct means of checking colds and chills, but they safeguard the chest and lungs against more serious disease. Nothing "gets to the weak spot" like breathable PEPS in case of bronchitis, cold on the chest and asthma. Druggy mixtures, swallowed into the stomach have no power to ease your breathing or banish your obstinate cough. You must have PEPS which are unique, in that they contain the concentrated chest-healing virtues of the famed Swiss pine forests. In short, you have in PEPS, the pine-air cure brought into your very home.

PEPS, the greatest remedy ever discovered for throat and lungs, are sold only in handy sealed bottles. Price One Rupee of all Chemists or Bazaars; by post for Re. 1-4 from The PEPS Co., 9, Dalhousie Square, CALCUTTA.

I. GOOD HEALT

ROVERS FOOTBALL TOURNAMENT.

THE FINAL GAME.

K. S. L. I. BEAT A AND S. HIGHLANDERS.

The 1921 Rovers' Football Tournament was brought to a close yesterday when the final game was played between the King's Shropshire Light Infantry, of Bombay, and the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders, of Poona. A good game was expected, and long before the time fixed for the commencement nearly every seat in the enclosure was taken up, while the other sides of the ground were lined three to join deep, and by the time the game commenced there was hardly any standing room anywhere.

In fact the gathering was the largest seen in Bombay at a football match. Anticipations were fully realised for the game turned out to be most interesting and exciting. Enthusiasm rose high throughout, both sides having about an equal number of supporters. One thing, however, that marred an otherwise good game was the bad refereeing.

The gentleman who had charge of the whistle could hardly keep up with the play, and thus many an off-side and other infringements of the rules went unchecked. This gentleman has proved throughout the Harwood League and this Tournament his incapacity as a referee, and it was surprising to see him in charge of such an important game as this. The fault, of course, did not lie with him, but was that of the officials of the W. I. F. A.

THE SIDES COMPARED.

As regards the game itself it proved, as mentioned above, a really fine one, and fast at that.

The Shropshires won, but they were decidedly lucky to have done so as the Argylls on the run of the play were certainly the better side. The latter had distinctly bad luck in not being able to make a draw of it even, for time and again shots missed the goal by inches. Another factor that contributed to their failure was their want of dash and bustle. Yet another was the splendid spoiling tactics of Lewis, the left back of the K. S. L. I., who times without number pulled his side out of critical positions. Evans, the other back, was good without being brilliant, while Smith at goal was quite safe, doing some excellent work, particularly towards the end of the game.

The halves excepting Carter were poor, and the forwards were for once prevented from showing that dash they are reputed for. Still they showed up well. As regards the Argylls their defence was splendid, both backs and halves putting in a deal of work and keeping the fast K. S. L. I. quintette at bay. The forwards did not bustle sufficiently, but otherwise played well. It must here be mentioned that the Highlanders were somewhat handicapped by their captain, Sergt. Brown, being hurt early in the game and being unable to give anything like the good display he gave in previous games.

DETAILS OF THE GAME.

Play started evenly and both sides attacked in turn, but eventually the K. S. L. I. got going and the game had hardly been in progress five minutes before they scored what proved to be the only goal of the match. This was the result of a combined movement on the part of their forwards, which ended in Puttock sending in a spanking shot which completely beat the goal-keeper. The K. S. L. I. continued to press but Ritchie checked their on rush. The Argylls next attacked and Pte. Brown just missed scoring, his shot missing the mark b a couple of inches. Even play resulted for a few minutes, the ball being carried up and down the field, but the defence on both sides proved equal to the occasion. Once more the Scots got the upper hand and kept play in their opponents territory for a little while. They, however could not score, Lewis being the stumbling block to their efforts. At last the K. S. L. I relieved the pressure, and Puttock got away. He had an open goal before him, but failed to find the net, his shot going wide. Again even play resulted, and half time arrived with the score as follows:—

K. S. L. I.	..... 1 Goals.
ARGYLLS	..... Nil

Soon after the restart the Argylls got going and Sergt. Brown sending in a fine centre, gave Bannon an opportunity of scoring, but the latter shot wide. McClellan followed with another shot which, too, failed to find the mark. The K. S. L. I next attacked and were awarded a corner but nothing resulted. The Argylls soon returned to the charge, but Lewis again checked many rushes of theirs. This was followed by an invasion of the Argylls territory by the Shropshires and Druburgh was called upon to save, which he did. Once more the Highlanders began to press, and for some time the K. S. L. I. goal was in imminent danger but Smith, Lewis and Carter saved their side from disaster time after time. Once a beauty of a shot by Sergt Brown caught the crossbar and dropped down just in front of the goal. A goal seemed eminent but Smith saved in the nick of time. Another time a long shot by Counter looked like finding its mark, but again Smith saved by rushing out and knocking the ball away. The last few minutes of the game proved most exciting, the Argylls trying their very best to get the equalising goal, and the K. S. L. I. being equally determined to prevent them from doing so. The latter succeeded, and left the field the victors amidst loud cheering by their supporters. The final score was:—

K. S. L. I.	..... 1 Goals.
ARGYLLS	..... Nil.

The paper says the country should strongly protest against this export at this critical juncture of famine.

NATIONAL EDUCATION.

MR. ARUNDALE'S CONCLUDING LECTURE.

Mr. Arundale concluded his lecture on "National Education" yesterday evening at the Marwadi Vidyalaya, Mr. Jamnadas Dwarkadas presiding on this occasion.

Mr. Jamnadas was received with vociferous shouts of "Shame, shame, etc." and his introductory speech was made inaudible by the noise.

MR. ARUNDALE.

Mr. Arundale said that in his last address he dwelt on Brahmachari Ashram and caste system. He would dwell now on some other essentials of education, viz.:—cleanliness, purity, chastity of body and mind, and good morals. He briefly described them all.

Then he referred to another essential the "Sandhiya or daily devotion. The spirit of reverence by coming into touch with larger life outside was necessary, and this could be obtained by "Sandhiya" or daily devotion. By this we try to get out of the fleeting temporary into an eternal one.

He referring to the importance of female education said in the building of the nation, woman too had to play her part She is as good a citizen as man. Woman as much competent to make laws for the country as man. But we have to respect womanhood. When Rome was great she respected woman. At that time Roman woman was at the highest pinnacle and summit of her glory but as soon as Romans began to despise her, the Roman Empire too began to decay

ESSENTIAL OF EDUCATION.

Then there were further essentials of National Education and they were reverence to elders, good will and affection to equals and tenderness to young. Tenderness to young did not mean only youth, but also sub-human kingdoms, such as animal, vegetable and mineral Kingdoms.

One more important factor of National Education was "Yajvidya" or athletics. "If India is to be a free country it would have to depend as much upon discipline of body as much on discipline of mind.

Then the hours of study should be after morning and evening devotion. The present system of education between 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. was bideshi and not Swadeshi. Most of the students suffered from indigestion and dyspepsia because they took their food at 9 a.m. and right away went to school. There was no scope for exercise and digestion and as a consequence they became victims to these two complaints.

After dwelling at some length on Dharma, Karma and truth which were essential principles of National Education, he said that if he were asked to prepare the curriculum he would introduce the presence of a doctor for every school and college. He wou'd also make the teaching of music, art, and culture compulsory. He would ask every house-holder to use artistic pictures of their heroes and he would adorn every school and college walls with art pictures of exquisite paintings of national heros.

Finally he concluded by saying that 20 years hence India would make remarkable stride among the nations of the world, and if she were to regain her glories of the past and achieve glories in the future, she should train her youths on the noble principles of national education.

Before the vote of thanks could be passed, the audience grew clamorous again (seeing the Chairman proposing a vote of thanks) and overwhelmed him with shouts "Shame." Mr. Arundale therefore lef abruptly without waiting for the concluding applause of appreciation.

NOT TOO HARD.

There was a picture of Daniel in the lions' den in her aunt's drawing-room, and when Betty went to stay with that relative the picture interested the child a great deal.

The story was told to her, and she quite understood how the lions had been ordered not to hurt Daniel beca se he was a good man.

One day, however, her aunt came into the room and found Betty on a chair, beneath the picture, whispering in an excited aside to the lions:

"Bite him a little bit. Betty wants to see."

BANK OF BOMBAY CASE.

APPLICATION FOR WITHDRAWAL.

At the Esplanade Police Court, zefore Mr. G. R. Khairaz, Acting Third Presidency Magistrate, passed orders in the case in which Mr. Bowen, Public Prosecutor, had renewed the application for the withdrawal of the case against Khushru N. Banaji and Motiram Jayakar who have been charged with complicity in the defalcation alleged to have been committed in the Bank of Bombay sometime ago amounting to over twelve lakhs of rupees.

Mr. Bowen, Public Prosecutor, conducted the case.

Mr. Vicaji, Barrister-at-law with Mr. K. F. Nariman, pleader, appeared for Banaji, accused No. 1, while, Mr. Manker pleader, appeared for Motiram Jayakar.

His Worship in passing orders said that he had carefully considered the points raised by Mr. Bowen, the Public Prosecutor Mr. Vikaji and Mr. Manker and was unable to grant sanction for the withdrawal of the case against Banaji.

At this stage Mr. Bowen interposed and said:—"If Your Worship decide that the case against Banaji be proceeded with, the application for withdrawal of the case against Motiram be considered.

Magistrate:—So far as accused Motiram is concerned, I am willing to give my sanction for withdrawal. But there are sufficient materials for a prima facie case against Banaji. I understand a letter has been addressed to the Bank by Ranjit saying that Banaji has received 13 lakhs of rupees out of 16 lakhs. That letter has not been given to me. The letter, I think, will be useful to the prosecution. As soon as Mr. Bowen feels r eady to go on with the case, the accused may be placed before the Court. I shall commit the accused to the sessions if a prima facie case is made against them.

THE BOMBAY CHRONICLE.

Thursday, August 25, 1921.

LORD READING AND MALABAR.

Every right-minded person will deeply deplore the outbreak of violence in parts of Malabar. No-one will deplore it more keenly than those who are workers in the Non-Cooperation movement, the essential of which is non-violence. In the ordinary course of things, we should have refrained from making any comment on the unfortunate tragedy that has been and is being enacted in Malabar, until order had been restored. Unfortunately, neither the authorities in Madras nor their supporters in the Press have resisted the temptation to prejudge the issue and to make political capital out of the unfortunate tragedy. Hence it becomes the duty of those who are anxious to see truth triumph and justice vindicated to protest against these attempts and to call upon higher authorities to intervene before it is too late. The Madras Government communique which we published yesterday began with the statement that "there have been indications for some time past that the agitators in Malabar have been working on the well-known religious fanaticism of the more ignorant class of Moplahs." The communique then proceeded to refer to "a widespread and dangerous organisation that had been created in certain parts of Malabar," evidently, according to Government, the outcome of "seditious" pamphlets and "seditious" speeches. The "Madras Mail" is more explicit. It has jumped to the conclusion that the riots are "the first fruits of the seeds of indiscipline and rebellion which Khilafat and Non-Cooperation propagandists have been scattering far and wide throughout the district." After indulging in a farrago of nonsense and malice the journal concludes:

"The present outbreak in Malabar has brought things to a head. Knowing the fanaticism of the Moplahs, the play which has been made upon their religious susceptibilities by revolutionary agitators, we do not suppose that the rising will be quickly suppressed, nor that it will be suppressed without serious loss of life and much injury to public and private property. Madras is unfortunate in that the first flames of the revolution, for which Mr. Gandhi, the Ali Brothers and their followers have been so consistently working should have first sprung up in her midst. Now that they have appeared, it is the duty of every loyal citizen to help the Government in suppressing them lest they spread and devastate the land. But while engaged on the work of extinguishing the flames, let us not fail to take steps to secure immunity from further conflagrations in the future. This can best be done by realising dangers attending the activities of the revolutionaries and taking precautions to confine those activities. Our London correspondent announces that it is stated in London that the Government of India have decided to institute proceedings against the Ali Brothers. There is ample justification for such proceedings since of late the Ali Brothers have been most defiant in their attitude towards the Government, breaking both the law and their pledges in their determination to flout authority. The Moplah outbreak is an added justification since there is little doubt that one of the first causes of the present ebullition may be found in the Brothers' inflammatory speeches to their co-religionists. Moreover, justice demands that in the fight against revolution our operations should be directed as much against the enemy's leaders as against their ignorant dupes." Could mad fury go further? We do not think Lord Reading's Governmen are so devoid of statesmanship as pay a moment's heed to this counsel of madness. We condemn violence of any sort, whether the offenders are Government officials or the mob. We have no wish to justify the riots that have taken place in Malabar. But before the Indian public is persuaded to believe that the Moplahs now "in open rebellion" have resorted to violence merely for the fun of it and at the instigation of Khilafat "agitators," they will, we have no doubt, want to be satisfied that the rioter were not goaded into breaking the law by the senseless and lawless actions the local authorities.

The Government communique is not quite explicit as to how the "fanaticism" of the Moplahs wa roused into action. All the information as to the immediate cause of the outbreak that we are vouchsafed is this:—

"At the beginning of this month two case occurred which showed the existence of organisation among the Moplahs to resist lawful authority by force. Concerted action of the crowds in these cases and their equipment showed that they were acting under some sort of organisations. Information was collected as to leaders and the District Magistrate decided to arrest and proceed against them under the Moplah Outrages Act of 1869. With this object the District Magistrate arrived at Tirurangadi on the early morning of Saturday 20th accompanied by a party of Leicester Regimen and a body of special police. Details of the day's occurrence are not yet received as the telegraphic communications were interrupted but the following account contains information which has reached the Government that nothing untoward appears to have happened till 12 noon when news was brought to the District Magistrate that an armed body of Moplahs about three thousand strong was approaching Sirruran gadi from the Parapanangadi railway station. The bulk of force with the District Magistrate appears to have gone out to meet this crowd in order to disperse it. Firing was necessary, and there were some casualties and twenty arrests."

The details supplied by the Palghat correspondent of the "Madras Mail" are somewhat significant and supply the key to the situation:

"Our readers are aware, from the published accounts, of the details of the Pookotur-Manjeri trouble, where it was mentioned that a gang of Khilafat Moplahs entered a Nambudiri Illom and demanded a high ransom. It would appear that the District Magistrate set the law in motion and summoned some of those implicated in the crime to answer a charge under the Security Section. These Moplahs refused to appear and hence warrants were issued to arrest them, with a view to bring them to justice. To apprehend them a contingent of Reserve Police surrounded mosque, wherein the accused were said to be in hiding. Soon a huge mass of Mahomedans, computed at between 4,000 and 5,000 strong, formed a cordon round the besieging force thus preventing the arrest of their guilty comrades. This news is believed to hav spread like wildfire all over the Moplah country. The Tanur Moplahs are said to be on the move towards Nanjeri to succour their comrades and while on the march are said to have committed arson and outrage on Government buildings and property. Further news is to hand that Government telegraph lines are cut in and around Tanur, so that communication is possible only through the Railway Telegraph."

Having regard to the intense religious feelings of the Moplahs, of which the District Magistrate cannot be expected to be unaware, no more provocative action could be imagined than the surrounding of a mosque by a contingent of Reserve Police. It is not surprising that this news "spread like wildfire all over the Moplah country", the people of which had already had a taste of the repressive and high-handed policy of Mr. Thomas, the Collector, and his lieutenant, Mr. Hitchcock, the Superintendent of Police. In fact, while we have no desire to prejudge the issue, while we condemn the outbreak of violence, on the part of the people, under any conceivably strong provocation from the authorities, no right-minded person can ignore the provocation offered or fail to demand that those who offer it should be brought to book. And no one who has followed the history of repression in Malabar can fail to realise the extent of the provocation given. The Calicut correspondent of the "Madras Mail" makes a significant remark which brings into relief the utterly misguided policy of Mr. Thomas and his superiors in the Government. He says that "the District Magistrate's justification for wishing to prevent Khilafat propaganda in the inflammable Moplah zone is now only too manifest" in the present riots. The Government of India have often professed sympathy with the claims of Muslims regarding the Treaty of Sevres. If they are really sincere, could they express that sympathy more effectively than by allowing the public to carry on their non-violent agitation against that Treaty throughout the length and breadth of the country? Instead of doing so, they have given a blank cheque to local authorities who have, in many places as in Malabar, adopted the wrong course of putting arbitrary restrictions upon peaceful agitation and obstacles in the way of proper organisation and the preaching of the gospel of non-violence, thus driving the discontent deeper into the hearts of the people. A policy of tolerance was never more needed than at a time like this when the hearts of Muslims are in agony as a result of the unholy war of aggression by the Greeks who have been perpetrating unheard of atrocities against the Turkish population. Peaceful agitation at a time like this serves as a safety valve and a wise Government, which sympathised with the wrongs of the people, would think twice before giving support to the policy adopted by Mr. Thomas and endorsed by Lord Willingdon's Government.

In the circumstances, the question that is uppermost in the minds of the people is: What is Lord Reading going to do? Lord Willingdon's Government, in consultation with the General Officer Commanding the Madras District, have, according to the communique, ordered the reinforcement of special measures for the safeguarding of the railway line westward from Pothanur and have arranged for the immediate despatch of troops from Bangalore. From the proclamation issued by the Officer Commanding Malabar area, it is evident that the military are in control, and at Sirurangadi a crowd numbering thousands according to the "Madras Mail" correspondent, came in contact with the military which opened fire with Lewis guns, inflicting "several casualties." In fact the "Madras Mail" correspondent goes so far as to suggest that the civil authorities are absolutely helpless in Ernad, and he virtually demands the proclamation of martial law. He says:

Civil government in Ernad, as should be plain, is wholly unequal to the present situation, while the very limited military and police forces at the disposal of the authorities, though behaving splendidly in face of exceedingly heavy odds, are too few to cope with a rising of unprecedented size, especially when regard is had to the physical features of the region, the remarkable clannishness of the jungle Moplah race and the fact that most bands on the warpath are armed with a remarkable number of swords, war-knives and other weapons. Be it noted also, that your Moplah martyr predestinate never dreams of turning his back on his foe. Death is sweetest and the caresses of houri is most ravishing when the blood of the infidel is on his hands. The unanimous public opinion is that fully adequate military reinforcements should be urgently despatched, the more so as symptoms of restiveness are not entirely absent in Calicut too.

We do not know if the local Government have asked the Government of India to place the whole of Malabar under martial law. Order, of course, must be restored. But we trust Lord Reading, while according every legitimate support to the local Government, will not give them or the military a blank cheque. The rising must be put down. But Lord Reading must immediately issue a declaration that as soon as order is restored, an impartial enquiry, commanding the confidence of the people, will be instituted to investigate into its causes and the methods adopted to suppress it. He must also issue a strict warning to the military authorities that order must be restored with the minimum use of force. And, we think, he will be well advised to proceed at once to Malabar.

THE FISCAL COMMISSION.

The Government of India seem at last to have begun to understand the elements of political justice. The Indian Merchants' Chamber and Bureau has been constantly insisting upon the principle of an Indian Chairman and an Indian majority on the Fiscal Commission. The Government of India—if rumour speaks truly—have adopted the principle. For our part, we confess, we were afraid by adopting the principle pro forma, they might yet have neutralised its effects by making a nonentity the president of a commission of dumpies. The Government of India have dispelled these apprehensions. Sir Ibrahim Rahimtulla is appointed chairman of the Fiscal Commission. The public is still in the dark regarding the rest of the members, but rumour says the principle of an Indian majority has also been accepted. We must acknowledge that this is a master-stroke of diplomacy, which disarms criticism before it can well be formed. The Government of Lord Reading—by this one stroke of placing a strong man and an Indian in the chair—have obtained carte blanche for packing the rest of the Fiscal Commission, as the Simla secretariat might desire. Lord Reading must be aware that a chairman of the commercial traditions and political ambitions of Sir Ibrahim is apt to compromise, being prone to please. The counterpoise, however slight, of an equally sound personnel in its entirety—cannot, therefore, be safely neglected. Most important is the choice of the Secretary. Commissions of enquiry with their presidents and personnel are by nature evanescent. They come and go; but the Secretary stays. For, he is the man intended to be trained up in all the labours of the commission; the man to collect and compile; to select and formulate; to explain and carry out the proposals of such a commission. It is impossible to find among the hidebound civilians the man to fill the Secretary's post. And Indian opinion will never welcome a secretary of the yet unextinct Bell or Craddock type. We must warn Lord Reading against the fatal policy, so common in the proceedings of the Government of India, of hesitation and half-heartedness, which might well be mistaken for unwillingness. If Lord Reading will not have his principle vitiated and made ineffective, he must make up his mind to disregard red-tape, over-rule precedent, ignore traditions in the choice of the Secretary and personnel of the commission, and be guided solely by the principle of looking to the interests of this country which can only really be safe-guarded by her own sons.

The terms of reference to the Commission are also not published, and Lord Reading will do well to realise that the manipulation of the terms constitutes no little danger to the success of the Commission, to the achievement of the object which educated India almost to a man desires. We have asserted again and again in these columns that the Fiscal Commission cannot be and must not be a body to institute an academic inquiry into the respective merits of the rival systems of Protection and Free Trade. Free Trade has been tried and has failed miserably after an uninterrupted trial of half a century. What the Commission must investigate is the possibility of a comprehensive scheme for all-round attention to the general industrial development of this country. It is not merely a question of tariffs or subsidies; not a choice between Imperial Preference and absolute Free Trade; not a problem of infant industries against established propositions. The Commission must consider all these and more. It must neither ignore nor be oppressed by the bogey of trusts and syndicates. It must not overlook nor magnify the nascent conflict between Capital and Labour, nor the transparent divergence in interests between the consumers and producers. The key industries, without which it is utterly hopeless to expect an industrial future for this country, must be considered with as much care as the other great ancillary of a general industrial growth, namely, transport and banking. Let us not repeat this time the mistake—to call it by no harsher term—of the Industrial Commission; and introduce an unnatural divorce between the consideration of the growth of industries and the consideration of the means to accomplish that growth. Sir Ibrahim with all his firmness and tact will be powerless, and the Indian majority with all its patriotic fervour will be helpless if some obscure Pundit of the Simla secretariat is allowed to use red-tape so as to circumscribe narrowly and unnecessarily the field of inquiry of this Commission.

It is said you cannot change human nature by an Act of Parliament. We would reply that an Act of Parliament, even if it cannot alter human nature, may yet provide an ordinary citizen with a standard for his daily actions. It is urged that commissions of inquiry cannot affect the fundamentals of a given social structure. We suggest, however, that a proper scope given to such commissions, with a clear conception of the main object of the inquiry, would help enormously to banish many a misconception. The Fiscal Commission must envisage the role of the State in the problem of industrial development of the country as a whole, and not merely recommend aids to specific industries. The Commission will succeed or fail in proportion as it adopts a national point of view, and to the extent that it makes comprehensive proposals.

Notes of the Day.

Women and Swadeshi.

The enthusiasm for "Swadeshi" which Mahatma Gandhi's tour is creating among all classes of people, especially the women of this country, must be deemed to be something really marvellous. With the eye of a true seer, Mahatma Gandhi appears to have realised, as none before him realised in an equal measure, that the key to the permanency of the true Swadeshi spirit, as of every other cultural possession worth retaining, rests in the hands of India's women and that if they can be roused to a sense of their responsibility to the nation, nothing that the men do or fail to do will be able to shake the foundations of "Swadeshi", to any appreciable extent. India's womanhood is responding splendidly to the call of the Motherland, but still more strenuous efforts are needed on the part of those, men and women, who have already caught the spark of "Swadesh", to carry the torch to every cottage door and every nook and corner of the land, so that no Indian sister may remain in ignorance of the message and deprived of the regenerating influence of "Swadeshi."

Elphinstone College Hostel Incident.

In connection with the Elphinstone College Hostel incident, we understand that towards the end of last month the Secretary to Government, Education Department, wrote to the Director of Public Instruction, to the following effect:—

"The Government solicitor should. . . . be requested to consult in the presence of the Principal and those students who appear to have cause of action and to ascertain the terms of settlement which would be satisfactory to them. The students concerned should be informed that Government will not consent to assist in any legal proceedings until a reasonable attempt to come to a compromise has been made and has failed."

It is about four weeks since these instructions were issued. One would like to know what attempt has been made by either the Principal or the Director of Public Instruction to bring about a compromise. Our information is that no serious attempt has so far been made and that the students finding the College authorities unsympathetic, see now no way to secure redress of their grievance except through the law courts. Is such a condition of things creditable to the authorities?

More Light.

The "New Empire" (Calcutta) writes as follows, "in fairness to the Advocate-General", in connection with the Munitions Case:—

We have good reasons to make the following statements:—(1) That the Advocate-General was not at all consulted by the Government regarding the withdrawal of the case. (2) That his advice was not even invited on the legal aspects of the withdrawal. (3) That one fine morning the Advocate-General was abruptly asked to withdraw the case. (4) That the Advocate-General himself unable to find reasons for the withdrawal, wired to the Government of India to let him know the reasons for which he should urge the withdrawal. (5) That the Government of India sent out a long telegram to the Advocate-General detailing the reasons for which the withdrawal should be asked. (6) And that the Advocate-General did not commit himself to anything beyond what was stated in the Government of India's telegram.

If the facts are as alleged—and we see little reason to discredit them—Sir Thomas Holland's part—for, it is obviously he who solely constituted the "Government of India"—in this sorry affair could not be more reprehensible than it was, from whatever point of view we consider it. The Government of India should publish the whole correspondence that passed between Sir T. Holland and the Advocate-General regarding the withdrawal of the case.

"Swaraj"!

The "Servant of India" writes:—

"We are afraid the Governor of Bombay is using his special powers of disallowance in regard to resolutions rather too freely. He is understood to have disallowed a resolution seeking to express the Council's opinion in favour of the abolition of the three Revenue Commissionerships in the Presidency on the strange ground that the matter was not primarily a concern of the local Government. His ruling is clearly erroneous in view of the fact that a similar motion was allowed to be discussed only recently in the C. P. Council. Another resolution proposing a reduction of the present strength of the Executive Council by one-half, of which due notice was given before the March session of the Bombay Council, is also reported to have been disallowed, while Lord Willingdon's Government saw no objection to the same being discussed in the Madras Council. The resolution was eventually passed in Madras in an amended form, the abolition of only one Executive Councillorship being recommended."

Who said "Swaraj" does not obtain in the Bombay Legislative Council? In the memorable words of the great democrat of Bengal, subject to the limitations put at the sweet will of Sir George Lloyd, there is none to dispute the rights of our cooperator-legislators.

MOPLAH RIOTS.

SEVERAL MURDERS COMMITTED.

SERIOUS FIGHT WITH GOVT. FORCES.

GOVT. EFFORTS TO RESTORE ORDER.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

MADRAS, Aug. 23.

Further details of the Moplah rising in Malabar, according to the "Madras Mail" correspondent, shows the Auxiliary Force was mobilised last night owing to strong rumours that looting and excesses would begin, and the European community was removed to the West Hill. Casualties among Moplahs are estimated at between five hundred and seven hundred killed and wounded, but correct details are unknown.

The Parapanangadi railway station has been completely wrecked. It is believed the Moplahs are working their way to Calicut. The Telegraph Engineering staff who set out to repair the lines were forced to return, for as soon as the line was repaired in one place it was cut elsewhere. Communication with Madras via Mercara is the only line open.

Mr. Martelli, Deputy Superintendent of Police, has removed all cash and valuable documents to the Government Treasury, and the reserve police are guarding the Feroke railway bridge. One party of Moplahs are reported marching on Pattambi where the railway station is threatened. Between fifteen and twenty men of the West Hill detachment of Leinsters, who were in action at Tirurangadi, are missing and it is presumed they were hemmed in and were unable to return with the main body. A portion of the British reinforcement is understood to be marching down via Vyadi and Nilambur.

Refugees who arrived from Shorapur by mail train report serious fight in Tirurangadi village between Government forces and Moplahs. Mr. C. G. Austin, Special Joint Magistrate, Malapuram, is at the headquarters guarding the magazine. Officers' wives and children are protected in the guard-room. The Malapuram Joint Magistrate and the Palghat Joint Magistrate have wired for military aid.

Captain Newton with a small contingent of the Auxiliary Force is proceeding to Shorapur to guard the railway property. It is feared that a mob is on the march to Shorapur wrecking the permanent way and cutting telegraph wires. It is rumoured they are nearing Pattambi and all ladies and children in Shorapur have been sent to Podanur.

SITUATION AT TIRUR.

The "Madras Mail's" special correspondent at Tirur reports plundering by the mob of Hindu houses including that of a non-cooperator vakil, also that public offices are burnt and a prisoner released from the jail. Trikandiyur, temple, near Tirus was also plundered. Rebels are reported to have sacked Tanur fishery station.

AWARDING OF COMPENSATION.

DIST. MAGISTRATE'S WARNING.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

CALICUT, Aug. 23.

The District Magistrate of Malabar has issued the following notice.—Under the Mopla Outrage Act 20 of 1859, provision is made for levying compensation for outrages and damages to property from the Mopla inhabitants of the place in which the outrage is committed. The District Magistrate warns all persons that compensation will be recovered at double the value. Information has just been received here from Kottakal near Tirur that a large mob armed with dangerous weapons attempted to trespass into the Ayurvedic hospital built by one of the wealthiest Ayurvedic physicians of Malabar and visited by his Excellency Lord Willingdon, during his last visit to this district, but left there extorting a sum of Rs. 100 from the proprietor. The next attempt at trespass and looting was alleged to have been made in the Kiyyake Kovilakam from where a sum of Rs. five hundred was extorted. Some Kovilakams at Nilambur also are alleged to have been looted, but fuller details are not available. While a contingent of reserve policemen numbering about seventeen passing along Tirur, Moplas held them up, made them remove their uniforms, and carried away their arms and ammunitions.

Four of them managed to escape and reach here to-day. The whereabouts of the others are not yet known. The four men who returned here to-day had only their shirts and dhoties.

Sub-Inspector V. Krishna Menon, reader to the A. S. P. of Palghat, arrested to-day from Calicut four Mopla spies who belonged to Ernad and who came to Calicut to spy under certain pretexts. Three of them offered resistance, but the Sub-Inspector who was alone brought them under control. These men who are known to be of some influence in the community and the two arrested last night have been removed to Cannanore to-day under a military escort. Considerable anxiety is entertained here regarding Mr. T. Austen, I.C.S., Special Assistant Magistrate, Mallapuram, who was in his headquarters at the time of the outbreak and about whom no information is now available. The mails from Madras have not been reaching here since Sunday last and it is understood that arrangements have been made for their transport to Calicut in other ways.

CONSTABLE SERIOUSLY WOUNDED.

Constable Oonnakutty of the Edwanna Police Station in Ernad has just been brought to the local hospital with a number of wounds on his body. It appears that a number of fanatics attacked him and caused the injuries on his body with knives and swords. There are innumerable wounds, and his condition is very precarious. The The Moplas seem to have left him senseless.

MOB MOVES TOWARDS PATTAMBI.

POST & TELEGRAPH OFFICES PILLAGED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

CALICUT, Aug. 23.

According to the latest information the mob is said to be moving towards Pattambi, Ottapalam and Ponnani. The Post and Telegraphs office at Ponnani is said to have been almost pillaged and there has been a regular looting in Nilambur, Manjeri, Malappuram, Tirur, Parappanangadi, and other places from where innocent men, women and children are said to be fleeing for their lives. The District authorities are doing their best to remove the panic in Calicut and the neighbouring places.

THE RAID AT TIRUR.

10,000 MOPLAS PARTICIPATE IN ATTACK.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

CALICUT, Aug. 24.

According to the details now available over ten thousand Moplahs participated in the raid at Tirur where they set fire to the records of the District Munsiff's court and the police station. The police officers molested by them are Inspector A. Neelakandar Iyer, Tirurangadi, Circle Inspector T. K. Kaishpan, Government Railway Police prosecuting Sub-Inspectors Rama Iyer and V. M. Appu Nayar and sub-inspectors V P. Karnakara Menon and U. C. Kunshikaman. So far known their lives have not been endangered but the Moplahs made them surrender all the arms and ammunitions and the police uniforms. The fanatics have formed themselves into different factions and are going into different directions. The Moplah coolies numbering over three thousand employed in the Hully State near Vayakkad have abandoned the states and gone off to Ernad to join their coreligionists. Strong rumours are also current here that Messrs. C. M. Brown and S. P. Eaton, planters, are missing. It is also alleged that the Moplahs were converting Hindus to their faith by removing their locks of hairs and then rushing Moplah caps on them. Many Hindu houses at Tirur and other places have been looted.

The resetting of rails has now reached Parapparangadi but it is now understood that rails have been removed beyond Parappangadi, Tanur and Tirur. The conditions of rails beyond Tirur remains to be known. There is a possibility of train service not being resumed for another week.

RIOTERS LOOT ZAMORIN'S PALACE.

COMMUNICATIONS DESTROYED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

CALICUT, Aug. 24.

On Sunday at 8 a.m. about two hundred armed Moplahs from Pookottur went to Nilambur place and attacked the sentries posted at the gates of the place, some of whom took shelter in the neighbouring houses where the Moplahs entered and slaughtered thirteen souls including women and children. They then broke into the palace of senior Thempurates, set fire and demolished everything found there. All the family records were destroyed. They retired from the palace saying they would return after an hour after taking refreshments. Fortunately the Thempuratties and Thirumulpads were not molested. All communications including bridges have been destroyed. Avenue trees are felled and thrown on the roads by way of obstacles. Near Wardur-Ernad a large number of Moplahs trespassed into Puliyara palace and Thriparachy Kellam which belong to Zambrin's family intimidated Karyasthans and removed money and paddy.

GOVT. OFFER AND SINN FEIN COUNCIL.

TO INFLUENCE DAIL EREANN'S ATTITUDE.

THE IRRECONCILABLE FORCES

(REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.)

LONDON, Aug. 23.
Recd. 2-30 p.m., Aug. 24.

It is believed that the Sinn Fein Council, composed of a hundred representatives of the Sinn Fein organisations, which is meeting in Dublin to-day, will considerably influence the Dail Ereann's attitude towards the British offer. The Dail Erean held prolonged sitting yesterday.

The feeling is growing stronger in Dublin that although the offer will probably be unanimously rejected, an avenue will be left open to enable further discussions to be held. It is stated that one of the strongest opponents of the offer is Erskine Childers. Another irreconcilable force is a group of "Black Women" relatives of the men hanged or killed in the Irish conflict. On the other hand a favourable sign is the fact that many provincial Sinn Fein papers are adopting moderate views.

The true solution was something on the lines of British Dominion Rule with a central capital as the National clearing House. Mr. Simpson is taking back to China important recommendations in this connection. He said that China expected great things of the Washington Conference where she was convinced she would receive British support.

MALEGAON RIOT CASE.

STARTLING REVELATIONS.

TUTORING BY POLICE.

5 WITNESSES RETRACT STATEMENTS

(FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.)

NASIK, Aug. 23.

Lively interest has been caused in the Malegaon riot case by sensational revelations made by a series of witnesses both on Saturday and yesterday. The case was becoming tedious owing to almost uninterrupted repetition of the main incidents by constable witnesses during the last week. But new a turn was given to the proceedings. Gangaram along with four other witnesses Vaidu, Phulya, Wahab and Umar, who were examined yesterday confessed to tutoring by Rao Bahadur Kokje and his assistants, including one Inspector Alibhoy, whom the witnesses described as Topawalla Khan Sahib. Though Gangaram was not treated as altogether hostile, the prosecution Counsel suggested that yesterday's four witnesses had completely turned round and he wanted to cross-examine them. Vaidu, Phulya Wahab and Umar admitted having made statements before the committing Magistrate at Malegaon, implicating many of the accused in connection with the incidents of the 25th April and as having been themselves eye-witnesses of the part played by the accused.

ALLEGATIONS AGAINST POLICE.

But they emphatically stated yesterday that those statements, which were entirely false, were extorted from them under threats of personal violence and intimidation of indescribable nature. All these witnesses were categorically and explicitly warned by the Court of the consequences of making a dixerent statement from what they had previously made in the lower Court and were even made to understand clearly that they would be sent to jail for making a false statement. In spite of it all these witnesses, who have never been as they admitted allowed to get away from strict police surveillance since they were first got hold of by Mr. Kokje, unflinchingly maintained that they knew nothing of the incidents connected with the riot and they had been tutored to say what Mr. Kokje wanted them to say. They said: Mr Kokje was assisted in this business of tutoring and intimidation by Inspector Alibhai and constables Imam Khan, Ahmed, Ibrahim, etc., and certain townsmen, including one Ganpat Gavde and Chand Tapalia. The Court seemed to view this with dismay and all possible methods open to Court under the Criminal Procedure Code were tried with the witnesses, presumably to test their genuineness, and it was soon discovered that not even fear of being sent to jail induced them to depart from what they described as truth so far as they were concerned. Two of these witnesses were Momin youths, much under eighteen and the remaining two were Hindu labourers.

THREAT OF PROCEEDINGS.

The first to be examined was Vaidu. He stated that he was forced by Inspector Alibhai to identify more and more accused, and he had therefore identified much larger number than he knew before the committing Magistrate. What he told that Magistrate was not correct. He also said that Mr. Kokje told him if he did not give evidence according to Mr. Kokje's wish, proceedings would be taken against him for looting at Malegaon on the 26th April.

Replying to Mr. Azad, Vaidu stated it was not true that a bag of coppers was found in his house by the police but some people said one had been found. The witness used to be shown certain people among the accused and told to give their names. He was afraid of Mr. Kokje and had been threatened that very morning at 8 or 9 by Mr. Kokje. If he did not say as he was told he would be put into jail.

After his examination was over, he was discharged, but before he had time to cross the threshold of the Court exit, he was recalled and asked to furnish sureties or personal recognizance of two hundred rupees for appearance at the Court whenever called upon. Soon after he had left the Court room and gone out in charge of a Court orderly, I am told he was pounced upon by Mr. Kokje's men and taken before him and placed under arrest on charge of dacoity under section 395 I.P.C. in connection with looting at Malegaon, thus putting into effect the threat which the witness said had been held out to him repeatedly by Mr. Kokje.

THREATS OF TORTURE.

Vaidu and after him three successive witnesses complained of the threats of torture, starvation, assault on their person and constant intimidation by which they were coerced to make false statements before the committing Magistrate. Witness Wahab also stated he was threatened with personal ill-treatment of indescribably vulgar nature while in the police custody and on the day he gave evidence before Mr. Braham, he was told by Mr. Kokje that unless he identified all persons he had been told to, he would be sent to jail and that Inspector Alibhai had been sent with the witness to the Court to watch him, and when he returned from among the accused without identifying the Hindu accused, Inspector Alibhai made signs to him, whereupon he had said to the Court he forgot to mention some more names, and he should be allowed to point them out again. After that said the witness Inspector Alibhai fled away from the Court.

In this connection Mr. Azad mentioned the incident in Mr. Braham's Court which led to Inspector Alibhai beating a hasty retreat from the Court. The Judge remarked there was no note of the incident in the Magistrates's notes. Mr. Azad explained what had happened. The incident was reported in the "Chronicle" at the time.

Umar, the last witness yesterday, burst out into cries on being asked if he had ever been assaulted by Mr. Kokje, and feelingly said he was beaten by Mr. Kokje. He also spoke of the vulgar threat by Mr. Kokje, and his agents, similar to threat held out to Wahab. Umar admitted he and Wahab were both eunuchs. They both sang, played and danced.

WITNESSES BOUND OVER.

All the four witnesses were bound over in sureties of two hundred rupees each. Yesterday's happenings have changed the atmosphere here altogether, and profound sensation has been caused. I learn all the four men and two approvers were marched into jail, Mr. Kokje bringing up the rear. Witness Gangaram, who was examined on Saturday complained of intimidation and coercion by the police for falsely implicating certain accused. He stated Mr. Kokje and Inspector Alibhai told him there would be no harm if he mentioned a few more names than he was actually aware of as they had already been mentioned by other witnesses.

HEAD CONSTABLE'S EVIDENCE

SUB-INSPECTOR'S ESCAPE.

From our Special Correspondent.

NASIK, Aug. 12.

On the Court reassembling this morning, questioned by Mr. Azad, Mr. Lakshman rao stated that on the day of the riot he was at his gin. He returned to town the next day at 6-30 a.m. The first person he met was his brother Vishwanathrao. They did not talk on anything. They both cried away regarding the burning of their house and also, he added thoughtfully, at the death of the Sub-Inspector. The deceased had been a friend of his for 15 years or more. He and the deceased never talked about the affairs of the town. Witness attended one meeting concerning the affairs of the town. The meeting was held at the Marathi School About 200 people were present. It was presided over by Mr. Mule. Witness was a trader but he did not deal in saris and was not in any way affected by the Paisa Fund. He was invited to the meeting. Asked who invited him witness corrected himself and said that he was one of the canveners of the meeting along with Mr. Kashikar. Both he and Mr. Kashikar had been friends for many years. The D. S. P. told him to convene the meeting. The D. S. P. spoke to him at the (Malegaon) Police Lines. Witness knew Mr. Shilidy well. He was a friend of his. When the suggestion about the meeting was made, Messrs. Kashikar, Gupte and Ghaisas were present. He could not give the date. The meeting was convened the same evening. Prior to that date—3rd March witness had never taken part in public affairs. It was very nearly a public meeting. Mr. Shilidy asked them only to convene the meeting. He said he had receivedcomplaints regarding the Fund and that the leaders and traders should be called and persuaded not to use objectionable methods. Witness assured him: "We will do our duty as citizens."

HEAD CONSTABLE'S EXAMINATION

NASIK, August 15.

Examined by Mr. Rangnekar, Dharma Talya Police Head Constable, stated that he had been at Malegaon for about 18 months. He knew that there was rioting at Malegaon on the 25th April. He had gone to the cutchery at 5 p.m. that day. While he was still there, Constable Ismail brought news to the sub-inspector that Rama Dada who was on duty in the town was assaulted. The Sub-Inspector took 5 armed men and 4 unarmed men and went towards the town. The Party halted at the Police Lines 'en route' and leaving one armed man there and reinforced by additional Policemen marched on their way to the town. At the gate of the Police Lines witness saw Rama Dada. The Sub-Inspector asked him to go to the dispensary and ordered an armed constable to accompany him. Rama Dada's head was broken and he had been hurt. At Lakdipool the Party came on Akbar Ali who was lying senseless. He had been hurt. The Sub-Inspector arranged to send him to the dispensary. The Party then arrived at the motor stand, where 1,000 to 1,200 men had collected. On the Sub-Inspector asking them why they were standing on the road, they said, "Get away; this is not your father's road." As the Party was proceeding towards the Toddy shop, people pursued them with sticks and threw stones at them. Thereupon they all began to run

TEZPUR'S OVATION TO MAHATMAJI.

MAHOMED ALI'S EXPOSITION OF BUREAUCRATIC VAGARIES.

HIS EXHORTATION TO MUSALMANS.

TEZPUR, Aug. 22.

On the evening of the 19th instant, Mahatma Gandhi, Seth Jamnalal Bajaj, Maulanas Azad Subhani, Mohamed Ali and Begum Mohomed Ali were entertained by the Secretary, Assam Provincial Congress Committee. Volunteers were addressed on their duties and the importance of discipline and selfless work were emphasised. Mahatma Gandhi met the railway strikers also and approved of the suggestion of some of them to return to their homes and make other arrangements for earning a livelihood. There was no sign of hopelessness among them and all cheerfully undertook to restart life independently of the heartless foreign employes who would break down their self-respect and patriotism. In the afternoon the whole party accompanied by Srijut Phookan and several Assamese volunteers left by steamer for Tezpur which was reached on the morning of the 21st . Torrential rain had not damped the enthusiasm of the large crowds assembled on the bank of the Brahmaputra.

LADIES MEETING.

When it cleared the party proceeded to the local theatre where Mahatma Gandhi, Maulana Mohamed Ali and Begam Mohamed Ali addressed Assami and Bengali ladies with regard to the holy war which they were waging and appealed to the audience not to let India to be beaten in this struggle by having to fight single handed against people who fought with both hands. In other words not to let Indians carry on the struggle alone but to come to their assistance. They awpealed to the audience also to take to the Charkha and to discard foreign yarn and foreign cloth. They could do more work than and emancipate India without bloodshed. Here too the ladies response was hearty ans young and old alike took Swadeshi pledge.

MAHATMA'S ADVICE TO PEOPLE.

In the afternoon Mahatma Gandhi addressed a huge concourse of Assamese and referring to the illusory promise of step by step reform till Swaraj was reached in the process he said that it was necessary to teach a lion who had been lured into the belief that he was a lamb, now to become a lion again by many stages and slow degrees. The moment he realised he was a lion, he knew how to act as lion and work for himself without the guidance of the shepherd's dog. Thirty-two crores of Indians were the forest lion who had only to realise their true self and discard illusion, that they were really only dumb driven cattle.

Maulana Azad Subhani supplemented Mahatma's appeal for Swadeshi in a lengthy and most convincing speech which affected the Hindos and Mussalmans alike. He and Maulana Mohamed Ali then proceeded to the mosque. After a conference of some hours arranged for the establishment of a Khilafat Committee at Tezpur which united all the four local Punchayets and removed the friction that jexisted. All have pledged themselves to carry on the Congress and the Khilafat work with all the greater zeal because of past neglect.

KHILAFAT MEETING.

On the morning of the 22nd, Maulana Mohamed Ali addressed a Khilafat meeting attended by Hindus and Muslims alike. He explained how the Non-Cooperation programme was originated under the auspices of the Central Khilafat Committee itself and how gradually the Hindu leaders come round and finally the whole nation adopted it. That was the triumph of the Khilafat movement and the Mussalmans should feel proud of their handiwork instead of repeating parrotlike cry, that Khilafat had been merged into Swaraj and Swadeshi. He gave the Mussalmans of India the message of the Turks, the Arabs and the Egyptians that if the Indian Mussalmans desired prevention of ensavement of their Moslem brethren abroad, the best means to prevent that catastrophe was for the Indian Mussalmans to free themselves and their fellow-countrymen from their century and a half old slavery.

HEALTH OF TIGER MORE NECESSARY THAN THAT OF HUMAN BEINGS.

Referring to a previous days incident, when a Gurkha leader of Tezpur was threatened with expulsion to Nepal by the Superintendent of Police, who had brought his car in the midst of peacefully sitting crowds, Maulana Mohamed Ali said it would be worth while examining the threat of expulsion of the Gurkhas long settled in Assam. Not so long ago the officials of the British Government had set fire to the forest homesteads of some Gurkhas in the humanitarian impulse to enlarge the game reserve and to prevent disease among the tigers who were exposed by these Gurkha maintaining cattle so near to the forest of whom many may be diseased and were capable of communicating their disease to the tigers that made a meal of them. Those who had such tender solicitude for the health of the tigers could not long fail to show similar solicitude for the health of Assam men and women. But if the Gurkhas were sent back to Nepal they might go all together and might never return to trouble the British officials again whether in Assam or in Amritsar; but remain in their own mountain home of Nepal. This aspect of the Gurkha expulsion was however not realised perhaps by the Superintendent of Tezpur Police. There was another aspect of the expulsion of such foreigners as the Gurkhas, perhaps equally unrealised, it would soon be the turn of the Gurkhas domiciled in India to join the Indian and serve notices on other foreigners from still more distant lands who had not even an Indian domicile to behave better between now and the December Congress or to quit as undesirable aliens.

This afternoon Mahatma Gandhi addressed another meeting and lighted a bonfire of foreign clothes. The Mussalmans have already begun discarding foreign caps, coats and shirts. Tezpur promises an early triumph of Swadeshi.

MALEGAON RIOTS.

towards the Town Gate. When they approached the Juma Masjid, Moulvi Jan Mahomed who was standing there shouted: "Catch these fellows: they are running away. Bhag rohe, unku pakdo." The crowd ran after them pelting them with stones. The Sub-Inspector was struck by a stone in the back of the neck and he ordered the men to fire away from the crowd. Two or three shots were fired and no one was hit by the shots. Then the Police made straight for the Pophales' temple. The Sub-Inspector shut himself up in the temple. Witness and three other constables remained outside. There was stone-throwing on a greater scale. Witness ran away towards Vishwanath Pophale's house. The doors of the house were open and were closed after he entered. When he had been in the house about half an hour, the Sub-Inspector came in. The temple had been set on fire and Vishwanath Pophale got frightened. They tried to find some means of exit. Going up on the roof, Vishwanathrao suggested to the Sub-Inspector to jump over to Puranik's terrace. But neither he nor witness could muster courage to do so. Then they all came downstairs. Witness then described the Sub-Inspector's escape disguised as a woman and his own by at last jumping over from one terrace to another and hiding himself in some house till 2 a.m. Witness then came out of his hiding and got away from Malegaon to some villages. He returned to the town on the 3rd day. Witness then identified a large number of persons as having been seen in the crowd at the cutchery, at the Motor stand and the temple.

CONSTABLE'S EXAM. CONCLUDED.

NASIK, Aug. 17.

At the close of constable Dharma Tatya's examination as a witness, Mr. M. K. Azad, mentioned to the Court that a number of people had been wounded during the firing by the Police at the Juma Masjid, on the 25th of April last. He wanted to take the opportunity of showing to witness some of those people, who, he said, were expected shortly Dharma was not therefore discharged till the following day, when Mr. Azad produced the Court three of the wounded persons. Witness said he did not know the young men. He maintained that the shots were fired into the air, that no one was hurt by the firing and he did not know these men were wounded by the firing at the Juma Masjid or near the temple. Witness had previously maintained the same attitude towards two of the accused who are alleged to have been wounded at the Juma Masjid while coming out after prayers.

But the upshot of it all was tha tRao Sahib Kkie had those unsuspecting men quietly arrested and at first, it appears, he was disposed to allow their being bailed out. Subsequently, however, when one of the defence pleader's interviewed the Rao Sahib, he is said to have informed the pleader that the men were charged under non-bailable sections and could not be released on bail. This step on the part of the Rao Sahib seems to be a clever move to seriously handicap the defence. The arrested men were cited as witnesses on behalf of the accused, and in less than three hours after the list had been handed in to the Court, they were arrested by the Rao Sahib.

After the lunch interval, the Court reassembled and adjourned shortly afterwards till Friday, as Mr. Azad, counsel for the defence, had suddenly to leave the Court in the middle of the cross-examination of a Police witness, on receipt of a telegram from Bombay concerning the critical condition of his mother's health. Mr. Azad suggested that the rest of the witness' cross-examination might be continued by one of his colleagues.

MALEGAON RIOT CASE.

EXAMINATION OF A POLICE WITNESS.

(From our Special Correspondent.)

NASIK, August 16.

The whole of today was given up to the examination of a second constable—witness Ahmed Ibrahim. At the outset the previous witness who had not yet been discharged was recalled and at the instance of the defence counsel shown a few of those who were wounded during the firing by the Police at the Juma Masjid and the temple. Witness said he did not know if those people were injured at all. The crowd was not fired at and he maintained no one was hurt. He admitted in reply to another question that he had made two statements before Mr. Kokje—one on the 5th May and the other on the 7th or 8th of the same month.

AHMED IBRAHIM EXAMINED.

Examined by Mr. Ragnekar, Constable Ahmed Ibrahim stated that as the accused in the Volunteers' case were being taken to the lock-up, two of the crowd created a little commotion by rushing up to the accused and telling the Policemen to take them also to prison along with the others. The Sub-Inspector and the armed police were there. The Sub-Inspector told those men not to create a disturbance but that they should pay the fines according to the law. Thereupon one of them—Siddu,—said he would go and bring the fine. The crowd went out to the gate and shouted "Alla ho Akbar." Witness remained at the cutchery. The crowd went away towards the town. Ismail constable came to the cutchery in about three-quarters of an hour after that and gave the news regarding the assault on the constable. The Sub-Inspector immediately went to the Mamlatdar Mr. Ghaisas and returning from him, took 4 or armed constables and other unarmed constables and proceeded towards the town. Witness was among the unarmed constables. They went to the Lines first of all and found Rama Dada standing at the gate. He was bleeding. He was despatched to the dispensary in charge of an armed constable. Starting from the Police Lines, the Party consisting of about 12 or 13 men reached the Lakdipool where they saw constable Akbar Ali lying senseless. The Sub-Inspector attended to him and sent him on to the dispensary in charge of two constables. At the Motor Stand a little further away, they saw a crowd of about 700 or 800 Momins. When the Sub-Inspector asked them why they were standing on the road, they said that it was not his father's road and there was room enough for him to get out. When the Sub-Inspector and the Police proceeded 40 or 50 paces towards the Toddy shop, they heard shouts from behind to the effect "what are you looking at; let us go, take sticks and stones." The crowd rushed ater them and began to throw stones. The crowd had sticks. From the Toddy shop they proceeded towards the Town Gate. Stones were thrown on them in large numbers. The Sub-Inspector was hit by a stone and witness also. Witness did not know if others were hit. The Sub-Inspector gave the order to fire in the air. Constable Shripad fired 2 or 3 shots and the crowd was scattered. The crowd collected again after a while, saying it was blank fire and shouting, "let us go on". The Sub-Inspector said "let us go to the Post Office" and he and all the constables ran away. Witness hid himself in the open courtyard of one Ichharam, about 15 or 20 paces from the Town Gate. He remained in hiding till 8 p.m. Then casting away his uniform and bareheaded, he went back to the Police Lines. There he came to know that the Pophales' house had been burnt and fearing that the Lines would be burnt, he went away to Jalgaon Choudi and informed the Sub-Ispector of the state of affairs at Malegaon. He stayed there about 2 or 3 days before returning to Malegaon. Witness identified large number of people as having been in the crowd between the Motor Stand and the Town Gate. He did not know and could not say who were those two people among the crowd who told the Sub-Inspector to get away.

CROSS EXAMINATION.

Cross-examined by Mr. Azad, witness stated that he had served in the Police Force about 20 or 31 years. Bhaskarrao, the deceased Sub-Inspector was very strict in his duties and witness did not know if he used bad language. Witness was at Malegaon in September 1920. It was the time of the Ganpati and Mohurram. He did not know if Hindus and Mussulmans had made up their differences. He also did not know if the Sub-Inspector was unhappy at the Prospect of Hindu-Mussulman unity. There was no disturbance between Hindus and Mussulmans at that time. Orders were issued to the effect that both Hindus and Mussulmans should take out passes for the Ganpati and Tabut respectively. Some took out passes and others did not. He was a Shaikh and a native of Nasik. He used to attend lectures and Vaz's .Vaz was a religious sermon. He had never attended or celebrated one in his life. Vaz was a religious gathering which was attended by many people. Milusharif was a private gathering. He had got up a few Milasharif. Both Vaz and Milasharif were sacred in the eyes of Mussulmans. Mr. Azad then asked witness if good Mussulmans would not resent intension at such gatherings. The Court observed they had nothing to do with it. Mr Azad replied that the point was very important to the case. The answer would show that every good Mussulman would resent conduct such as had been ascribed to Bhaskar rao. Witness was a Shaikh and he knew more about these matters than many others. Witness admitted the truth of Mr. Azad' question. He was a witness in the case against the volunteers. He attended the Vaz held on the night of the 12th April. Moulvi Jan Mahomed preached a sermon. Witness stayed there about an hour. The Vaz was in Urdu. He did not hear anything wrong or objectionable. He knew the Qoran, and added that he had seen but never read it.

On witness saying so, Mr. Azad asked him if he prayed. Witness replied he did so twice a year.

QUESTIONS CONCERNING ACCUSED.

Further cross-examined witness stated that he did not seize any sticks at the meeting The volunteers were standing at the Vaz with sticks. They were among the people Bhaskarrao, Mamlatdar Ghaisas and witnes entered the place and seized sticks. He did not see Suleimanmia there. Witness occasionally attended lectures and meetings. He did not remember Maulana Shaukat Ali's visit to Malegaon! He had attended lectures regarding the Khilafat question. Witness was then asked questions concerning individual accused whom he had identified. He said had known most of them for a long time. And in describing what calling some of them followed, he caused some laughter by saying one was a weaver by day and actor at night or barber by day and volunteer at night and so on.

Continuing, he said he made a statement—only once—before Rao Sahib Kokje five day after the riot. It was taken down in Marathi. After the lunch interval witness was examined regarding the arrests. After questions were asked regarding the trial of the volunteers before Mr. Thakar, witness proceeded to say that Ismail constable came the cutchery at about 4-30 or 4-45 p.m. Witness and others, including the Sub-Inspect and Dharma constable, were then sittitg inside the Taluka Police Office. The Sub Inspector went to the Mamlatdar's office and on his return they all started for the town. The Sub Inspector had no sword or revolver; he had only a cane in his hand. Witness did not tell him it was not good to go into the town as there was the likelihood of a riot. He did not tell the Sub-Inspector what he said he had heard accused Saban Bhicari say i.e. that the authority of the Police had come to an end at Malegaon. When the Police Party reached, the motor stand the crowd was carrying nothing whatever, not even sticks and allowed the Party to pass on. After they had gone 20 or 25 feet in the direction of the river, there was movement among the crowd and some one said: "What are you looking at? Take sticks and stones and let us go for them." Witness admitted he had not told this to Rao Sahib Kokje nor did he depose to it before the Committing Magistrate. Proceeding, witness said that as his Party was running towards Town Gate and so the crowd was running after them. There were 900 or 1 000 in the crowd. Stones were showered on them. He was struck in the forehead by a stone. He admitted there was no mark and he did not yet the injury treated. "I was afraid and running away for my life. How could I stop to get it attended to?" He asked. He bled from the wound. Dr. Bagwe saw it afterwards. He did not treat it. Witness still maintained that the Sub-Inspector had only a cane in his hand. When the Sub-Inspector took to his heels, he had only 4 or 5 constables with him.

ACCUSED KEPT IN POLICE LINES.

Continuing, he said, that the accused were kept in the City Police Lines but he could not say how long. They were removed to the Old Arsenal in the Camp two or four days before the Ramzan Id. Witness had been at Nasik in connection with the case about 17 or 18 days. He lived at the Police club with Rao Sahib Kokje. Dharma Tatya and other constables also stayed there. He denied that the approvers and other Police witnesses—Wahab, Umar, Phulya and Vedu,—lived in the club. Asked by Court, witness said that those people lived outside in the club but they took their meals there. He did not know where the approvers had their food. The Court observed that they must be in custody. Mr. Azad remarked they were not but Rao Sahib Kokje knew about them. (Sarcastic laughter.) On this, there was a little passage at arms between the Judge and Mr. Azad. The latter pointed out that the practice in Bombay was the approvers were kept far away from the investigating officer. The Government Pleader said that the approvers were in the ordinary jail. Mr. Azad retorted that they were not. He had been told that they were at the Police Club under the protecting wings of Rao Sahib Kokje. It was highly improper that it was so and he urged that the approvers should be kept away from the Rao Sahib. The Judge observed that he had no doubt that the approvers were in the jail. At any rate he was not going to rub it down into the investigating officer.

After a few more questions, the cross-examination of witness was concluded.

THESE FUNNY FRIENDS.

Smith met his friend Robinson in the street last night.

"How goes it, old fellow?" he cried. "Getting on all serene?"

"Oh, prettp well, thank you!" answered Robinson. "But", he continued, "I've something serious to say to you"

"What is it?" asked Smith.

"You'll have to keep your eyes open next week, my lad."

"How's that?" cried the astonished Smith

"Because you won't be able to see if you don't!"

Smith never caught him.

THE "EARIE" VISITOR.

There was once an old lady. She was very deaf, and she lived on the quayside of the harbour of a very important rivermouth town.

One day, when there were several warships in the harbour, a salute of ten guns was fired.

The old lady was alone in her cottage. As the first volley exploded she looked up, then she stood still until the booming ceased. As the last round died away, she smoothed her dress, brushed her hair back, and said sweetly:

"Please come in!"

CERTS.

Young Little liked a "little bit on", but unfortunately he had not the skill, or perhaps it was only the luck, to pick winners.

On looking through his racing paper on morning he saw a tipster's advertisement. "Two Sure Things for Five Shillings!"

He purchased a postal-order for the required amount, and wrote off straight away to the address in the advertisement.

But the advertiser was a smarter man than Little, for in reply Little received the following note:

"Dear Sir,—As advertised, my 'sure things' are:

"Loose Button.—Sure to come off.

"Dirty Carpet.—Wants some beating."

BREATHING SPACE.

The modern ideas on education are all very well so far as they go, but there is an old and well-cried proverb which says that a little knowledge is a dangerous thing. Perhaps that is why Johnny Jones' essay on air ran like this:

"Breach is made of air. We breathe always with our lungs, except at night, when our breath keeps life going through our noses whilst we are asleep. If it wasn't for our breath we should die whenever we slept.

"Boys that stay in a room all day should not breathe. They should wait until they get outdoors. A lot of boys staying in a room make carbonicide, and carbonicide is more poisonous than mad dogs, though not just in the same way. It does not bite, but that's no matter so long as it kills you."

G. I. P. MURDERS,

FURTHER EVIDENCE RECORDED.

(Associated Press.)

DEOLALI, Aug. 23.

When the Court reassembled after lunch, Fred Callaghan, Chargeman of the G. I. P. Railway, giving evidence described the movements of the accused Morris on the 18th July and subsequent dates.

Alfred Edward Osborne, Driver, G. I. P. Railway, said that on the evening of the 20th July he was driving a down goods train from Igatpuri. Accused Morris whom he knew wanted a lift in the engine from Igatpuri to Devlali and witness refused the request.

Shantaram Keshav, Train Examiner, G. I. P. Railway, said he examined the train in which the murders were committed before it left the Victoria Terminus and found the carriages were in perfect order.

Dinker Ramji, peon, G. I. P. Railway, supplemented the evidence given earlier in the day by the pay-clerk, Panday Joseph Menezies, an employee in the Coronation Hotel, Devlali, giving evidence, said he saw accused Morris at the Coronation Hotel for the first time on the morning of 20th July. He asked for a dinner early in the night, but was not present when he took up dinner to his room. Witness saw him again next morning, but the day after neither he nor his luggage was to be seen. All witnesses summoned for the day having been disposed off the Court rose at 3-30 p.m.

ASSISTANT SURGEON'S EVIDENCE.

(Associated Press.)

DEOLALI, Aug. 24.

When Mr. Braham, Special Magistrate, resumed hearing of the G. I. P. Railway Pay clerk Murder Case this morning Mr. G. N. Richardson, engine driver, residing at Igatpuri deposed to having seen Morris at Igatpuri as a spectator at a cricket match that was being held there on that day. He knew Morris from latter's boyhood Witness also saw Donnison with Morris who witnessed the match till the evening.

Mr. John Henderson next witness who was guard in charge of the up passenger from Bhusaval to Igatpuri said he saw Morris at 5-49 a.m. on the Deolali station. His companion bore closest resemblance to the accused Donnison in the court.

ASSISTANT SURGEON'S EVIDENCE.

Mr. G. G. Wagle (third witness of the day) Assistant Surgeon, Pachora, deposed that on the 21st July Sub-Inspector Nandgaon sent two dead bodies to him for post mortem examination. Witness them described the several wounds that were found on the heads of the pay clerk and the peon. He was sent for by the Station Master, Pachora, and when he went and saw the dead body of the Pay Clerk it was lying on the floor of the railway carriage between a borth and a table. The fractures on the head of the deceased could have been caused by a broken leg of the table that was produced in the court and death might have occurred some five or six hours before he saw the deceased first. He then described several wounds and injuries found on the body of the pay clerk's peon, and said while the injuries might have been caused by some blunt weapon the wounds should have been caused by some such sharp edged weapon as a clasp knife exhibited in the court.

The Magistrate then asked the accused if they wanted to cross-examine the witness as the medical witnesses are not generally summoned to the sessions or High Court when the case goes up there for hearing. Thereupon the accused Morris asked the witness if the wounds on the bodies of the deceased might have been caused by a knife produced in the court to which the witness replied in affirmative. Morris suggested if they were so the skull was not likely to be fractured. Witness agreed with him. Asked by the Magistrate Donnison said he did not want to cross-examine the witness.

FURTHER WITNESSES.

Constable Mangesh Govind, the next witness, deposed to having been entrusted with the dead bodies of the pay clerk and his peon for being taken to the hospital which he reached at 4-30 p.m. with dead bodies in just the same condition in which he found them in the railway carriage when he was first shown the deceased by his Sub-Inspector.

Mahomed Rajesab, a railway constable, next witness, said he was on special duty on the goods train between Igatpuri and Nasik on 20th July night. While at Igatpuri he checked seals of waggons and went to the break van to sit there, but finding a European there he went to the guard's van. While the train reached Deolali it slackened speed though it ought to have run through. He then saw the European in the break van get out of the train and identified him as the accused Morris in the court, who the witness said was seen in the Igatpuri station some twenty days previously. Cross-examined by Morris the witness said he had seen the former only twice, once some twenty days before the murder on the Igatpuri station and again in the break van on 20th July. Witness was able to see his face though Morris was sitting in the break van though there was no light there.

Public Prosecutor then informed the court that he reserved examination of the Station Master of Pachora for the High Court.

At this stage Court adjourned till tomorrow.

CAUSES OF APPRECIATION OF THE RUPEE.

THE "FINANCIER'S" ANALYSIS.

(Reuter's Telegram.)

LONDON, Aug. 23.
Recd. 5-20 p m., Aug. 24.

Analysing the causes of the appreciation of the rupee "The Financier" refers to the increased demands from Europe for jute, cotton and linseed, especially the last named, which is attributed to the drought creating a shortage of cattle food. Consequently an improvement on this score is likely to be temporary although the exchange may improve further before the effects of the drought wear off.

The Newspaper also draws attention to the importance of India's restriction of imports. It declares that the banking authorities in London are sceptical as regards the suggestion that the Government of India may try to support the exchange from the proceeds of the last sterling loan. "The Financier" asks how much improvement in the exchange may be aspribed to sentiment on account of a favourable monsoon and speculators exaggerating the future demand for linseed and jute thus affording an artificial help which is bound to collapse. It concludes that India is likely to benefit directly if the trade with Britain recovers in the coming months.

A BAD CONSIENCE.

A famous golfer was making a round of the course with his caddier, who was apt to stammer in moments of excitement.

Arrived at one particularly difficult hole, the golfer remarked:

"I did this hole in two the other day."

"What!" cried the caddie. "Well, all I can say is that you are a l-l-l-l-l——"

"Hold on hold on!" said the golfer in surprise.

"You're a l-l-l-l-lucky man, sir!" concluded the stammering caddied.

FOR QUALITY HOUSE WIRING CONSULT ME.

During the last few weeks at least 3 persons have died of Electric Shocks due to bad wiring in houses.
Any one can fix a couple of wires and light a lamp or run a fan but to do it with "SAFETY FIRST" in view is what only well-known and well experienced firms can do.
Don't look to money only in these cases, but look to future saving on account of no leakage and absolute safety from shocks.
We wire houses properly and supply first class fittings, fans and appliances at reasonable prices.
